PAY PER SALE

There are hundreds of other companies who will pay you commissions for sales.

Here are 5 affiliate programs I love to promote – not only because they are great products, but also because they've been created by entrepreneurial, online moms!

- 1. Elite Blog Academy
- 2. Building a Framework
- 3. Amazon Boot Camp
- 4. Pinning Perfect

Affiliate Window seemed odd to me at first because they actually require a $5 deposit to sign up with them. I went ahead and signed up, because they work with Etsy and I really wanted to promote these sellers. Affiliate Window does pay back the $5 deposit with your first commission, so it is straightforward:

31. American Express

33. Etsy
34. Find My Past
35. Fiverr
36. Lonely Planet

PAY PER SIGN UP

This option is great because it's low commitment for your audience.

You're not selling them anything & they don't need to buy anything.

You purely provide helpful information. If it's relevant to them & they sign up, it's a win for everyone.

90. Ebates – up to $25,000 (really!)
91. Affiliate Window - $30 per sign up
92. Craftsy – $15 per signup & a FREE course (up to $49)
93. Linqia – $5 per sign up plus 15% commission

Don't stop reading – the last few are hidden gems!

PAY PER CLICK

102. Linqia – the same company as #93 above but a whole different way to get paid!

Linqia works with big brands that will pay you PER CLICK, which is FANTASTIC because that is the EASIEST thing you can get people to do online.

No buying, no signups, no sharing, just click.

They say their average pay is $220 per campaign. When I first started with them, they offered me $120 in exchange for 150 clicks on a specific link.

My latest offer was $684 for just 1 campaign.

In December I worked on 5 campaigns for over $2,300!

LinQia has a few requirements, but I can help you with most of them:

- A. You need to have a blog. If you haven't yet started a blog of your own, I walk you through the process here. If you use my discount you receive a FREE domain name, a special hosting price of $3.95/month, and a FREE coaching session from me! Click here for the full details.
- B. You need a social media following of at least 2,500, which is easy to do with my tips for quickly growing your following.
- C. You need to live in the USA or Canada. Sorry, I can't help you with this one!

If I knew of any other companies that used this method, I would share them, but so far LinQia is the only rock star I'm aware of.

PAY PER TWEET

Finally if you know me well, you know I love using Twitter to make money online. This is because, well, IT'S SO EASY!

Brands will pay you to talk about their brand on Twitter... And I don't mean shady, unknown brands... You will work with everyday brands that you already use & love.

There are the agencies I recommend know & use:

103. BlogHer

104. Activate by Bloglovin' (formerly Sverve)

105. Social Spark (formerly Izea)
